Few Will Be Saved Among My Lukewarm People Of Sin

“Many are My lukewarm people. They will not be saved. They will go to Hell. Many in this modern age are caught up in lukewarmness. They will not serve Me as they are half-hearted in all they do. Detestable unto Me I have blotted their names out of the Book of Life. Satan knows this and he does all he can to extend this age of lukewarmness, My son. He does not want My people saved, so he prepares more worldliness to ensnare My people in materialism, My son. Great is his materialism in the Earth, and with it he uses it to ensnare My people with the sin of covetousness galore. My son, flee from his wicked plans. In order for you to stay alive you must give away all. He hates this. My people think it is good to be rich. Do they not know that money is endued by Satanic power, My son? That they refuse to give up because they love it too much. They must be pried from it kicking and screaming for them to be saved from their materialism. Like little children who refuse to give up their toys, My people must be pried from all they own kicking and screaming for them to be saved, My son. My lukewarm people must go through this process of the loss of all things in order for them to be useful to My Kingdom. Many are the things they own that are a hindrance to them knowing Me their LORD because they refuse to give them up. Into a life of ease and laziness they endure what they are missing in Me. I call all to give up all to lose any Satanic hindrances they have on their lives. The idols of the heart will be dealt with in their lives so that they will have no gods before Me. Many are the idols of their hearts producing wickedness in their lives, My son. They will not be saved unless they are dealt with in their covetousness. Their wicked deeds are evident in what is controlling their lives, and I will have no gods before Me. They must be dealt with in their lukewarm lives of covetousness, for only My Elect shall be saved. I have spoken, your LORD and Savior, amen and amen."
